1. PICK&PACK 2022

Today's industry is evolving at an unprecedented speed, and packaging and intralogistics are no exception to this trend. The emergence of the so-called Fourth Industrial Revolution has meant that both sectors will have to face new challenges in the coming years. Digitalization, artificial intelligence, robotics, 3D printing, sustainability of new materials... are some of these new technologies that will help companies to achieve more efficient processes, cost savings, impact on the circular economy and, therefore, an increase in business competitiveness.

However, this transformation process brings with it a series of changes that companies have to adapt to their production processes and that entail great challenges.

PICK&PACK 2022 aims to become an unmissable event for professionals and companies in the picking and packaging sector, where technology transfer, new products, innovations, and success stories provide a space for inspiration and the acquisition of new skills, with the aim of transforming the sector, discovering new business models and overcoming these challenges.

To this end, during PICK&PACK 2022, the National Packaging 4.0 Congress and the European Intralogistics Summit 2022 will take place, where the answers to all these new challenges in both industries can be discovered.

This call for speakers is looking for experts, professionals, companies, entrepreneurs, universities, research and development centers with the most innovative and disruptive ideas, initiatives, solutions or projects for the packaging and intralogistics sector. All speakers who identify with this objective are invited to send their proposals to both the National Packaging Congress and the European Intralogistics Summit.

2. CALL FOR SPEAKERS GOALS. WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

The sessions of National Packaging 4.0 Congress and the European Intralogistics Summit 2022 holistically cover the needs of industrial professionals, helping companies to face new challenges related to Industry 4.0, sustainability and competitiveness, which are no longer the future but the imperative need of the present.

This call for Speakers is open to candidates who bring new inspiring and disruptive ideas, technologies, equipment, materials, initiatives, solutions, management models, success stories or projects that help the sector to boost competitiveness, improve production processes and customer experience in the context of picking and packaging. The authors of the proposals can be experts, professionals, companies, entrepreneurs, universities, research and development centres with the most innovative and disruptive ideas, as well as all kinds of solutions that are contributing to the transformation of both industries. All speakers who identify with this objective are invited to send their proposals to the National Packaging 4.0 Congress and the European Intralogistics Summit 2022.
